Indiana 811 also offers a Design Ticket which is a notification requesting location information regarding buried utilities made to Indiana 811 in preparation for bidding, preconstruction engineering, or other advance-planning efforts. A Design Ticket may not be used for excavation purposes. Indiana 811 members are required to respond to Design Tickets within ten (10) full working days of receipt. Response to the person making the notice includes, but is not limited to, providing prints, maps, drawings, on-site markings, and other facility records of existing utility facilities.

By default, Design Tickets will be delivered to the main destination specified on the "Indiana 811 Ticket Destination" form. If you would prefer Design Tickets be delivered to a different destination, such as your Engineering Department, please complete and return this form.
